- For any other purpose made apparent at the time of collection.

Your Choices When Submitting Personal Information. You may be required to submit certain personal information to Spillway Communications, Inc. in order to create an account, validate your identity, or use certain content or services. By default, some of this information will be displayed and made available publicly on Spillway Communications, Inc. including as part of your personal profile and as part of content posted by you on spillwaycable.com. In other cases, you can choose whether to provide personal information to Spillway Communications, Inc., whether to display this personal information publicly on Spillway Communications, Inc., or whether to include personal information in content submitted for posting on spillwaycable.com. We urge you to carefully consider the types of personal information that you include in your personal profile or submit for posting on spillwaycable.com. For more information, please see the section entitled Privacy Practices of Third Parties below.

Automatic Collection of Information. Certain types of non-personally identifiable information may be collected automatically when you visit or use the Website. For instance, we may collect the IP address of the computer you are using; the name of the domain and host from which you access the Internet; the Internet address of the Web site from which you linked to the Website; the type of browser you are using; time and date stamp information; and information regarding your visit to spillwaycable.com, including your landing page, the number and order of pages viewed, and the time spent on a particular page. We do not treat this information as personal information, unless it is combined with contact, account or similar information that personally identifies you.

III. HOW WE SHARE PERSONAL INFORMATION

Service Providers. We may share personal information collected through spillwaycable.com with companies that perform services on our behalf, including companies that provide support services to us (such as data storage, web hosting and email services) or that help us market our products and services. Credit card processing is handled by our service providers, and subject to the privacy policies and practices of the credit card processor.

Business Partners Spillway Communications, Inc. does not rent or sell your personal information to unaffiliated third parties for mass marketing purposes. Subject to any applicable law, we may share personal information collected through spillwaycable.com with our affiliated entities and our strategic business partners. These affiliates and business partners may use the information to contact you about products or services that may be of interest, to improve the quality and relevance of their products and services, or as otherwise required or permitted under applicable law.

Law Enforcement and Protection. We may disclose your personal information when we believe disclosure is appropriate to comply with the law (including a court order or subpoena); to prevent or investigate a possible crime, such as fraud or identity theft; to enforce the terms that govern your use of spillwaycable.com; or to protect the rights, property or safety of spillwaycable.com, other users, or third parties. We also reserve the right to report to appropriate law enforcement or government agencies any activities that we, in good faith, believe to be harmful or unlawful, with or without providing notice to you.

Business Transfers. All personal information and other content submitted by you to spillwaycable.com is treated as a business asset, and may be transferred to another company that acquires an ownership interest in the stock or assets Spillway Communications, Inc. or one of our operating divisions, including as the result of a sale, merger, reorganization, dissolution or liquidation.
